

Mannings – New Cathedral Cemetery, Baltimore, MD

John T. Manning was the second son of William & Mary Manion. He was born as John Thomas Mannion. In the year 1893, he and Alice O'Hara were married as John & Alice Mannion. Their children were baptized as Margaret Mannion & William Mannion. After the year 1900, John & Alice Mannion changed their surname to Manning.

John T. Manning died in 1915 and is buried with his parents and several siblings in Section Q, Lot 14, New Cathedral Cemetery, Baltimore, Maryland.

Alice (O'Hara) Manning is buried in Section OO, Lot 60, New Cathedral Cemetery, with her son, William Manning.

Alice Manning's sister, Margaret (O'Hara) Gormanly, is buried in the same lot. The sisters share the same headstone, with Manning engraved on one side and Gormanly engraved on the other.

John and Alice Manning's daughter, Margaret Manning, was a widow three times. She is buried with her third husband, P.J. William Severin, in Section II, Lot 135, New Cathedral Cemetery, Baltimore, MD.

Margaret Manning's only child was with her first husband, Thomas Moriarty. Their son, John T. Moriarty, and his wife, Theresa, are buried in Parkwood Cemetery, Taylor Ave., Parkville, Maryland.

Use your browser's "BACK" button  to return to the web page.