

St. John the Evangelist – Valley Street, Baltimore, MD

St. John the Evangelist was the parish of the Molloy family. There were a large number of Irish Catholic families in the neighborhood surrounding the church. Lawrence Molloy, a parishioner, was a partner with a successful stone cutting firm, Clough & Molloy. His son, William L. Molloy, married Mary Margaret Coffay from Hampden, Baltimore, the daughter of John Coffay Jr. and Helen Kelly. William and Mary Molloy settled in St. John's parish on Ensor Street and raised five children there.

